★ Open Positions

- Secretary -
- Volunteer/Event Coordinator
 - Volunteer position
 - Recruits, instructs, schedules, and manages volunteers for PTO organized events, while also planning, organizing, and executing those events to achieve organizational goals. They act as a bridge between the organization's mission and its school's community, ensuring volunteers are placed effectively. Making sure events run smoothly and communication is clear among all parties involved. Along with the help of the board, this position will make sure all volunteers are organized and aware of their expectations prior to, during, and after events. Coordination of events is collaborative between the board and this position, but this position will serve as a base to the foundation of all PTO related events.
